PRIVACY STATEMENT

Environment Network (EN) is committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information of its employees, members, volunteers, donors, participants, customers, and other stakeholders. EN is also committed to ensuring that confidential and/or sensitive information, whether personal or organizational be treated with care and respect. Our privacy and confidentiality practices are designed to achieve this, and to ensure we are operating in accordance with applicable legislation, including, but not limited to, the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA).

This privacy statement is intended to inform you how we use information that is collected from you on this website. Please read the privacy statement before using the website or submitting information through the website.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information is any information about an identifiable individual, including name, home address, age, health, and financial information. It does not include information that cannot be tracked back to a specific individual. In addition, information that is publicly available, such as a telephone book listing, is not considered to be personal information. The history of an individual's donations to EN is personal information.

Where an individual uses their home contact information as business contact information as well as personal, we consider that the contact information provided is business contact information and is not therefore subject to protection as personal information.

Where we choose to have certain services, such as fundraising and processing services, provided by third party service providers, we select the service providers very carefully. We take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the service provider protects your Personal Information.

Information collected through contact forms for the purpose of providing a service will be disclosed only to the EN staff and contractors that provide the relevant service in the area where you reside.
